Crafty Coffee Morning

Our first 'Crafty' Coffee Morning was held on Saturday 1st July at St Luke's Church. It gave us a chance to display some of our members' crafty talents and raise some funds to keep the club running. We had a few demonstrations and also Guess the Name of the Penguin (Linda Gammon's creation), this was won by our member Valerie Quinn - and as an added bonus was presented by a surprise visitor, Fiona Bruce MP.

Françoise Rothery has been exhibiting at the Cheshire Show for 25 years and her exhibits showcased some very delicate and beautiful craftsmanship. Also there were

VILLAGE FAIR

Once again we held our 'Bottle Tombola' stall at the Village Fair in July. Luckily the weather stayed lovely for us so it was a busy day, loads to see and do. Well done to the organisers.

Celebrating Holmes Chapel Show

This Show was held on Saturday 17th September at the Community Centre and showcased our village in fine style.

Twenty-five organisations pitched their gazebos around the field at the Community Centre showing our community all they had to offer. We were no exception as we held a 'Name the Doll' and 'Number of Sweets in a Jar' competitions. Linda Gammon, Valerie Quinn and Lesley Davies manned the stall and Linda's beautiful doll was won by one of our members, Jean Jepson and the Sweets were won by a grateful young boy.

Two hundred exhibits filled the hall with entries ranging from chocolate owls baked by the brownies to displays of vegetables grown on our local allotments. There were a few entries from our members with success for Lesley Davies and Linda Gammon, which ranged from 1st prize to commended in various categories. There were plenty of classic cars on display with the ukulele band and the Hermitage school choir filling the café with music. A great success, well done to all the organisers.
